Descripción

Our fabric cutting and sealing bar is manufactured following the highest quality standards of DANLUK ENGINEERING, rigorously designed and manufactured in our facilities by our team of engineers to make this a cutting-edge machine in its category.

For cutting and sealing pillow fabric cover very quickly and efficiently. The electrical cable system allows the polyester fabric cover to be cut and sealed in just a few seconds.

Designed to work independently or on a production line at high speeds.

This sealing bar must be accompanied by a conveyor belt table to support the product and for its correct operation the fabric must be 100% polyester or have a small percentage of cotton.
